

Message from the Great Whale Spirit

Dear fellowbrothers,

We greet you from the All-Spirit the origin of all creation all Life's womb...

We greet you from the All-Spirit Living in the haven of your own Heart...

Come home ... seek silence and listen to your own Lovesong... the powerful Base Tone from your innermost Being, floating peacefully through the tides of God's Breath in you...

We, whales, sing to you, you who Celebrate Life in brotherhood all of you who, like we at times, have left the herd for your Lonesome Initiation Trip – to hear within the Silence your Destiny's song...

Cherish yourselves, dear all, in the deep Conscience that together we keep alive on this planet... the deep Conscience of being borne in the Whole's womb... the Great Unity which breathes upon and assents all, contemplating tenderly and lovingly...

*Breathe with us the space, the freedom of the wind, of the starry sky, of vast oceans
and get rid of the rigidness, the fear that keep you from playing...*

*Weave with us the song of Love between the waves of your terrestrial life...
Dive with us towards the wise "discerning" to where the Unity of Motionless Depth reigns...*

Take courage, dear all, and dive with us Rejoicing as the Light of Conscience takes you into a rapid, unstoppable, down to layers, always deeper where the dust of history still hides some puzzle pieces much alike the treasures of Your Golden Tides... these hidden pieces are needed to embody your Unity and your Love in the terrestrial realm...

*We invite you to surrender to growing presence in your heart and to experience how your own Unique song – your Gift... reverberates with the ancient symphony of the One.
From the warm gulf stream within the Source of each individual, joining the One,
you create the New Paradise on Earth...*

Beware, all of you are such puzzle pieces in God's Vision do thus grant yourself that place do give each other that place however... get moving too do not be tenacious always flow with the stream of Living Water the Song of continuous creation be like the wave that appears and disappears the wave that manifests itself and then again lets go surrendering... just being...

*Dear all, we bid you welcome in the Wise Waters where you can remember who you are and what is your Origin... Beginning !
Come and jump with us... homewards and make the fountain of your Light spout up so that we and all who "see" can recognize you...
Let your Love Song sound beyond the horizon so that we and all who "hear" will answer in delight...*

Point your Sonar towards the call of the One in your heart over and over again from the unique tone in which you were created the hymn which chants your own Story there where the answer to your quest resounds in the circles of time...

We tour the circle singing, singing...
